ONLINE POSTBACCALAUREATE CERTIFICATE IN HEALTH INFORMATICS

For those seeking a shorter graduate school option in health informatics (HI), Kent State University’s [online Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Health Informatics (HI)] is your opportunity to become part of a new and exciting field. This flexible program is designed for those who are interested in exploring a technical role in healthcare, as well as for those who are currently employed in the field and wish to broaden their knowledge and professional skill set.

PROGRAM BENEFITS

- Learn from the same award-winning practitioner faculty who teach in our Master of Science in Health Informatics program
- Study within a flexible online program structure designed for full-time working professionals
- Grow your career with an advanced credential without committing to a full master’s program
- No GRE required

PROGRAM STRUCTURE

- 100% online coursework
- 18 credits total
- 12 credits from the certificate can later be applied toward the MS in Health Informatics
- 6 courses
- 3 credits per course
- Courses last 7 weeks each
- Graduate in as little as 1 year
- 3 annual start dates: January, May, August

THE CURRICULUM:

Required Courses:
- HI 60401: Health Informatics Management
- HI 60403: Health Information Systems

Electives

Choose 12 credits from electives such as:
- HI 60410: Health Records Management
- HI 60411: Clinical Analytics
- HI 60412: Clinical Decision Support
- HI 60413: Change Management in Health Informatics

Electives may be selected from either the master’s required courses or elective courses.

WHAT YOU’LL LEARN

This program aims to expand your knowledge and skills in health information systems, health records management, clinical decision support systems and other areas relevant to the health informatics field. It is intended to help you develop and refine your competencies in this field so that you may take on a new role or advance in your current one.